

For our head office in Hamburg we are looking for a:

Working student in media and communications (m/f/d)

Location: Hamburg, partly mobile working within Germany possible
Start: 15 January 2025 to 31 December 25 with possible extension
Working hours: approx. 15 hours per week

The World Future Council (WFC) envisions a healthy planet with just and peaceful societies – now and in the future. To achieve this, we identify, develop, highlight, and spread future-just solutions for current challenges humanity is facing and award them with our unique Future Policy Award. Our Council consists of 50 eminent global changemakers from civil society, science, politics, and business. They meet annually at the World Future Forum to discuss the most urgent challenges and policy solutions to them. Jakob von Uexkull, the Founder of the Alternative Nobel Prize, launched the World Future Council in 2007.

We are looking for a working student (m/f/w) with a very good knowledge of German and English for supporting activities in media and communication from 15 January 2025.

We need support with the following tasks

- Content creation for social media (particularly Instagram and LinkedIn), (videos, visuals, captions and other texts)
- Website Updates (WordPress)
- Research support
- Other Tasks

Requirements:

- You identify with the goals and work of the foundation
- You are a 'digital native' and know your way around the various social platforms
- You are friendly, open-minded, willing to learn and communicative
- You are interested in media and communication
- You have very good oral and written communication skills in German and English
- You enjoy working with social media tools
- You work carefully
- You show initiative and can contribute independently to projects

We offer:

We offer you an international environment and an exciting field of work in our foundation! Your opinion is important to us, and you have the opportunity to actively help shape our media work and contribute your own ideas. We work globally with a large number of recognized personalities, which gives you an insight into a wide variety of areas.

We also offer

- Flexible working hours
- A relaxed working atmosphere with an informal culture
- Mobile working is partly possible
- 6 weeks paid holiday for the contract period
- An office in the center of Hamburg

Have we piqued your interest? Then send your application with cover letter and CV to: Alexandra Wandel, email: jobs@worldfuturecouncil.org, subject line: Media and your name.

Please note that the processing of applications may take some time. We will only inform those applicants who are shortlisted.

Please also note that we may forward your application internally as part of the application process. After the application process, all applications will be deleted.

We look forward to hearing from you!
